

Introduction: The Plain-Text Gospel Code

The best place to hide a secret is in plain sight.

The Hidden Gospel is not a new gospel. It is a hidden/unobserved facet of the diamond of faith.

The Hidden Gospel is the gospel for the damned. It is the way Jesus made, into the presence of the Father, for those who are the victims of time and death – seemingly cut off from a presentation of the gospel choice. Jesus made a way through Hell by going there Himself. He defeated sin and death right there - on their own ground.

Once we know of the existence of this hidden gospel – our eyes will be opened to see it in the scriptures - where we had never noticed it before. Come with me and see this gospel, hidden in the plain text of the scriptures. You will wonder how you never saw it before.

Seeking What Must Be There

I have a problem. I cannot accept the idea that some people might be rejected by God, eternally, because they never had the opportunity to hear the gospel. Jesus said: I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.ⁱ

I am not willing to accept that Jesus was mistaken in what He said. If I accept time and death as limitations to the gospel of Jesus Christ, then I must accept the eternal loss of those who never hear the gospel, before they die, just as I must accept the loss of those who hear it and reject it.

Sherlock Holmes said that “If the problem before us is impossible then we must have stated the problem incorrectly. When you have excluded the impossible, whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth”ⁱⁱ. I submit that it is impossible for God to lieⁱⁱⁱ for the simple reason that God is the foundation of truth. His word is truth. If God said, on Wednesday, that it was Tuesday, that would not be a lie, because it would actually be Tuesday.

It is impossible that Jesus was mistaken therefore, I have stated the problem incorrectly. Death and time cannot be capable of preventing the Word of God from coming to pass. Jesus is eternal, time is irrelevant to Him, and He defeated death. Neither time nor death has any effect on the words of Jesus. Therefore, we have missed something. Something has been hidden from us, which must exist.

Physics proves that we live in 10 dimensions – only 4 of which we can perceive. The other 6 must exist because they are mathematically proven to exist. If we can accept mathematics as proof of something we cannot experience, then we can trust the Word of God and the nature of God, to prove to us that a hidden gospel exists.

The nature of God is goodness and justice. A just God cannot allow accidents of time and death to prevent the hearing of the gospel. If He did allow it, He would not be just and/or He would not be God. If we accept this truth as a macro, a type to search for in the scriptures, then we can find the hidden gospel, which has always been present in the plain text of the Bible, which we have looked away from.

In the rest of this book, I will attempt to make this hidden gospel clear to you by showing new facets of scripture passages you thought you already knew. I do you mean to correct your interpretation of those passages, only expand your vision of what they could mean.
